How to get there.

By train

There are three major train stations in Brussels: Brussels North, Central and Midi/Zuid. Most international trains (e.g. Thalys, Eurostar) have their terminus at the Brussels Midi station. All train stations are connected to the public transport (metro, trams and/or busses).

Plan your journey online: <https://www.belgiantrain.be/en/>

By plane

If you arrive by plane you will most likely be landing at Brussels Airport. The fastest way to the center of Brussels is by taking the Airport Line (bus #12), or a train to Brussels (North/Central/Midi). Plan your journey online:

<https://www.belgiantrain.be/en/>

If you are arriving in Charleroi (Brussels 'South') airport, a shuttle service is available which will take you directly to the Brussels Midi train station (+/- 45').

By metro/trams/busses

Once you are in the city, getting around is easy thanks to our metro system, trams and busses. You will find all info on <http://www.stib-mivb.be/index.htm?l=en>. Interesting might be the Jump-tickets 24h, 48h or 72h.

We also advise to consider downloading the app STIB-MIVB which is available for Android and Apple.

Planning to visit something by bus outside of Brussels? Check delijn.be for the Flemish Region, and infotec.be for the Walloon Region.

Hotel suggestions.

We are happy to provide you with some hotel suggestions (in random order), but you will find many more options on the internet.

Atlas Hotel

Rue du Vieux Marché aux Grains, 30
1000 Brussels

This hotel is close to Metro Station Ste-Catherine and in the middle of the buzzing heart of Brussels. Line 1 or 5 brings you in 5' to Central Station (but walking is more fun).

Atlas Hotel is in walking distance to campus Bloemenhof and RITCS, the other campuses Kaai and Jette can also be easily reached by metro (in case of Jette: in combination with a tram).

IBIS Brussels City Centre - Place Ste-Catherine

Rue Joseph Plateau 2
1000 Brussels

This hotel is close to Metro station Ste-Catherine and in the middle of the buzzing heart of Brussels. Line 1 or 5 brings you in 5' to Central station (but walking is more fun).

Ibis Hotel is in walking distance to campus Bloemenhof and RITCS, the other campuses Kaai and Jette can also be easily reached by metro (in case of Jette: in combination with a tram).

Hotel Marivaux

Boulevard Adolphe Max 98
1000 Brussels

This hotel is located in downtown Brussels, in walking distance from Campus Bloemenhof and RITCS. The closest railway station is Brussels North.

This hotel is also of interest for teaching staff visiting our Campus in Jette. From Metro station Rogier you can take metro line 2 or 6 to Simonis. From there tram 9 brings you to our campus Jette (stop UZ Brussel).

Belvue Hotel

Evariste Pierronstraat 1
1080 Brussels

The first 'passive' hotel in Brussels in the canal area is situated between the vibrant Dansaert neighbourhood and Molenbeek. It's a hotel with a mission: providing on the job training for young 'NEETS' (young people being Not in Education, Employment or Training).

Both RITCS and campus Bloemenhof are a 15' walk. The closest metro station is called Etangs Noirs, about 10' on foot. This metro will take you to all our campuses (in case of Jette: in combination with a tram).

Meininger

Quai du Hainaut 33
1080 Brussels

This hotel is located as well in the canal area, between the vibrant Dansaert neighbourhood and Molenbeek.

Both RITCS and campus Bloemenhof are a 15' walk. The closest metro station is called Etangs Noirs, about 10' on foot. This metro will take you to all our campuses (in case of Jette: in combination with a tram).

NH Collection Brussels Grand Sablon

Rue Bodenbroek 2B
1000 Brussels

This hotel might be of particular interest to staff visiting the Royal Conservatorium Brussels. It is 10' walk from Central station and located in the Museum Quarter. Busses connect Sablon with Anneessens in downtown Brussels (and to RITCS or campus Bloemenhof), but it is a wonderful walk as well, and maybe even faster.

Discovering the city.

Last but not least, we would like to show off our city! Brussels is a wonderful place. There is so much to see and do, that you will be sorry to leave.

Museums, monuments, parks, tours, restaurants, bars, clubs, shows, concerts, parties...

The best way to check how to fill your free time, is to go to the website visit.brussels/en. Consider also downloading the app. You'll find places to discover, cultural events and where to eat or have a drink.

EhB also has interesting cultural events, find the latest programmes via
